

Thorps Springs.
Sep, 2, 1880.

Dear Papa,

We received your letter Monday, it was the last. We expected to get one yesterday but did not. We are still working with peaches. We have three trees with very large ones on them, they are not ripe yet. We haven't heard from cousin Olga yet, we have one letter for her but we will keep it until she comes. Mr Harding's meeting closed Monday night, he baptized 3 the last night after meeting. I went over to the college yesterday and cleaned out your desk.

Mama is making sweet pickle to day, and the children are cutting peaches to dry.

Cousin David will be in this eve with a load of goods for Mr Babney.

We just stay here at home and don't know any thing to tell you. We havent heard from Grand-mother to day, she was over at uncle Tommes yesterday.

Every body is asking when will you be at home.

Mr Hale is still working at his house, he has made it longer every way. He wants 10 boarders. John Jenkins came over to see if we had any peaches to sell the other day. If you had plenty of
