

TEXAS
PRESS CLIPPING BUREAU
DALLAS

---

Houston (Tex.) Post

NOV 8 1947

---

Carter's Auto Robbed
Of $4735 in Fur, Garb

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Amon G. Carter, publisher of The Fort Worth Star-Telegram, has reported that thieves who broke into his parked auto stole clothing and furs worth $4735.

The Carters were passing through Chicago en route to South Bend, Ind., to attend the Army-Notre Dame game. The robbery occurred while the car was parked during a stop for breakfast.