Mr. Will Rogers.

Dear Will:

I am enclosing clipping of inducements offered King David to locate in San Diego, California. I am interested in California as it is your home and will be glad to furnish, free of cost, one wimpus, which will be in keeping with the $75,000 home and 16 cylinder car.

Very truly yours,

Home And Car Awaits Coming Of King David

BY UNITED PRESS

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Jan. 14.—A $75,000 home and a new 16 cylinder automobile are awaiting David, King of Israel, when, and if, he returns to earth and decides to live in San Diego.

The gifts of Goliath's slayer are made possible through a trust fund created by Judge James Rutherford, former Missouri jurist and president of the International Bible Student's Association, the watchword of which is "millions now living will never die."

Judge Rutherford today revealed existence of the odd deed and fund in announcing that one claimant already has appeared to put in a bid for the house and car. The home is known as Beth-Sarim, or House of Princes.

David and his brethren will resemble characters from the Bible, but in modern dress, Judge Rutherford believes, and that is why he refused to recognize the claimant to the trust when he appeared.

"I was just going from the house one morning when a queer looking creature approached me," Judge Rutherford said.

"He tipped his dirty hat and cried: 'Howdy, Judge. I'm David.'

"I could see at a glance he wasn't David, so I said 'go and tell that to the winds.'"

David and his companions will rise from the dead as "perfect men," Rutherford said.

"That I interpret to mean that David, Gideon, Barak, Samson, Joseph and Samuel will be sent here to wrench the earth from Satan's grasp, clothed in modern

"When they arrive, everything will be theirs—the house, the land, the furnishings and the automobile."
