Frosh Dance Plans Sure-Fire Good Time

Men from Tarrant Field will be special guests at the freshman class dance at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the Gymnasium.

The entertainment committee has worked out a sure-fire system for introducing the Army to the Navy, and there is a surprise store for the girls," says Miss Ziege Davis, chairman of the committee.

"The dance is an all-campus affair—the first such affair sponsored by the freshman class—and we want the students to turn out in force.

"Music will be furnished by the juke box, and will include all the favorite platters we can round up. Big plans have been made for a good time and we want everybody to come—couples and stags (both boys and girls)."

Dancing, which begins at 7:30 p. m., is scheduled to close at 10:45 p. m., "so that all girls can be back in the dormitories by 11 p. m."

Doris Blessing Area 'Y' Officer

Miss Doris Blessing of T. C. U. and Leroy Henderson of Bishop College, were named joint chairmen of the North Texas "Y" Conference for 1945-46, when 50 delegates from 8 North Texas schools met at the Y. W. C. A. camp Saturday and Sunday for a spring conference.

T. C. U. was represented by Bill Conkling, G. D. Polnack, Donald Sellstrom, Dr. C. H. Richards, Prof. C. R. Sherer, and Misses Doris Blessing, Jean Horton, Katherine Allred, Barbara Conkling and Hannah Groginski. Mrs. Mirth Sherer and Miss Jimmie Woodward, regional secretary of the "Y," organized the spring conference.

Dr. Richards led a discussion on the Dumbarton Oaks proposals and spoke on "What Students Can Do Toward Making a Secure Peace."

Misses Blessing and Beth James, vice-president of the campus "Y," will represent the organization at the Hollister, Mo., encampment this summer.

Catalog for 1945-46 To Be Ready in June.

The proof for the general catalog was returned to the printers this week and the catalog will be ready by June, Dean Jerome Moore reports.

The new catalog for the 1945-46 school year, will include the program for transition to the old semester plan. The beginning of the change will be the nine-week summer term starting July 3, 1946. The regular fall semester will begin Sept. 16, 1946. This is the date when the old schedule will actually be in force again. In 1947, the regular 12-week summer term is scheduled.

The summer catalogs are available in the registrar's office now and the summer-fall schedule has been posted on the bulletin board outside the dean's office.

Libraries Ask $25,000 Of Rockefeller Foundation

Definite proposals have been made to the General Education Board of the Rockefeller Foundation asking for $25,000 for each of four colleges in the North Texas area, to be used in obtaining books for their libraries.

The money is requested for completing back files of periodicals, President M. E. Sadler reports. The four schools included in the proposal are North Texas State Teachers' College, Texas State College for Women, S. M. U. and T. C. U.

Dr. John Davis to Speak To "Y," Meliorist Club

Dr. John Davis, secretary of the Christian Board of Higher Education, will speak on the Cleveland Conference at a joint meeting of the Meliorist Club and "Y" at 7 p. m. Monday in the University Christian Church.

V-E Day Assembly Will Be Held

June 14 Date For Arts Day

Winners in 7 Creative Writing Contests to Be Announced in Assembly

June 14 has been scheduled as the date for the Creative Arts Day Assembly, it was announced today by Miss Mabel Major. Awards will be made to winners in seven contests. Five contests are open to all T. C. U. students. "Walter E. Bryson Poetry Contest" offers a first prize of $10, provided by Mrs. Artemisia Bryson. The "Short Story Contest" prize of $10 is offered by Lt. Rebecca W. Smith, head of the department of English, on leave of absence.

Also, there will be a $10 award offered by William P. Baker for a stage or radio play in the "Drama Contest." Lt. A. L. Crouch gives a $10 prize in the "Southwest Literature Contest." A $10 award for the "Non-Fiction Prose Contest" will be made by the Woman's Branch of the Fort Worth T. C. U. Ex-Student's Association.

The "Freshman Creative Writing Contest" is open to "all students who have been enrolled in freshman English for at least one trimester between July, 1944, and June, 1945."

Awards of $5 will be made by the Dallas T. C. U. Woman's Club for winners in four classes of entries, "Narrative of Fact or Fiction," "Sketch or Incident," "Critical Essay, Article or Book Review," and "Informal or Personal Essay."

The "Margie B. Boswell Poetry Prize for T. C. U. Ex-Students," will be awarded for the first time this year, the winner to be announced at the Creative Arts Day Assembly. The $25 award will be made annually by Mrs. Boswell, Texas poet and mother of nine T. C. U. ex-students. Entries in this contest must be sent to Miss Major by May 15.

Entries in the creative writing contests for present students must be in the hands of a member of the English faculty by May 25.

Students' Art Exhibit In Little Gallery June 17

A student art exhibit will be placed in the Little Gallery from June 17 through June 30, according to Prof. S. P. Ziegler.

The formal opening of the show will be Sunday, June 17.

Portraits, still lifes, regular class studies and outside projects of the students will be included in the exhibit.

Frog Version May 22—

'Doll's House,' Amateur, Pro For Fort Worth Audiences

Students will get an opportunity next month to compare the efforts of T. C. U.'s would-be actors with those of a professional company. Ibsen's "A Doll's House" will be presented on the T. C. U. stage May 22 by Prof. Lew D. Fallis' advanced acting class—six days prior to a professional production of the same drama downtown.

Miss Nita Carrington will take the leading role of "Nora Helmer," playing opposite Roy Joe Cates' portrayal of "Torvald Helmer."

Soloists Chosen For T. C. U. Cantata

Eight soloists have been chosen for the Choral Club's presentation of Gaul's cantata, "Joan of Arc," according to Prof. W. P. Marsh. The cantata will be given sometime during the first of June.

Soprano soloists will be Misses Nancy Dunham, Frances Hall, Max Helen Pickens and Dorothy Forrester.

Bill Frey, William Guffin, Bob Matheny and Harlan McCallum will sing the men's solo parts.

Piano accompaniment will be played by Miss Gloria Sheinberg. Miss Jo Ann Cornelius will play the organ.

Highest Praise Given V-12 Unit

T. C. U.'s Navy V-12 Unit received the highest recommendation possible from the Navy inspectors on the campus last week. They said they had found nothing superior to the unit at T. C. U., President M. E. Sadler says.

T. C. U. was commended again by Commander Dan Henry, in a letter to President Sadler, for the work being done in the ESMWT classes in the Evening College. He said most of the successful Navy men recruited in Fort Worth who went into radar work had studied under Dr. Joseph Morgan in the war training classes.

Church Choir to Sing Bach Number Sunday

The University Christian Church choir, under the direction of Arthur Faguy-Cote, will sing "Now Let All the Heavens Adore Thee," by Bach, at the regular morning worship service at the church Sunday. The organ prelude will be "Fantasy on a Welsh Hymn Tune," by Vaughan-Williams. "Prelude in C Minor," by Chopin-Nevin, will be played for the offertory. The Rev. Granville Walker will deliver the sermon.

Evensong will begin at 7:15 p. m. with organ music by Miss Pat Baker. Miss Hazel Hutton will sing "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say," by Harris. A. W. Robertson, T. C. U. pre-chaplain student, will be the speaker.

Pres. Sadler to Attend Meeting at St. Louis

President M. E. Sadler will leave Monday for St. Louis, where he will attend a meeting of the finance committee of the International Convention of Disciples of Christ.

Class Work To Be Halted For Program

A general assembly will be held when V-E Day is announced, reports Dean Jerome Moore. If the announcement is made in the afternoon or before 7 a. m. and the weather is good, the assembly will be held on the campus at 11 a. m. If the announcement is made after 7 a. m., the meeting will be in the Auditorium.

Classes will be dismissed from 10:30 a. m. until noon. President M. E. Sadler or Dean John Lord will speak. If an official proclamation has been made, that will be read, too. The band will participate in the program.

The assembly will not be held until an authoritative announcement is made, Dean Moore adds.

War Loan Totals One-Third Quota

Purchases of War Bonds now total approximately one-third of the campus quota of $18,000, Prof. B. A. Crouch reports.

Faculty - employee purchases have reached $4475, and bonds and stamps sold through the student booth total more than $2000, although the exact figure is not available.

A chart in the main hall of the Administration Building shows the progress of campus participation in the Seventh War Loan Drive.

Gymnasium to Be Site Of Soph "Relaxer Dance"

The Gymnasium has been chosen for the all-school "relaxer dance," to be given from 7:30 to 10:30 p. m., May 2, by the sophomore class. Admission will be 25 cents, "with or without a chick," says President Norman Hoffman. The juke box will furnish swing music for campus jitterbugs, and sweet music for those who have only the energy to waltz, after exam week.

The only restriction is that books be shelved and term themes tucked away for the one-night shindig, and Hoffman sounds convincing when he says, "we are really going to celebrate the end of tests!"

Rev. Wassenich, Ex '34, Elected to Texas Post

The Rev. Paul G. Wassenich, A. B. '34, has been elected to succeed Dr. F. L. Jewett as teacher for the Chair of the Bible, maintained by the Christian Church at the University of Texas.

The Rev. Mr. Wassenich resigned as minister of the East Grand Boulevard Christian Church of Detroit and will do work on his Ph. D. degree at the University of Chicago for a year before taking up his new duties in Austin.

Specialist Moore Leaves For New Orleans Base

Specialist 1/c Albert Ross Moore, stationed with the V-12 Unit for more than seven months, has been transferred to the Personnel and Training Command, Naval Repair Base, New Orleans.

Lt. Wilbyrd E. Irvin will join the V-12 Unit in July as an instructor in Navy science. At present, he is stationed with the N. R. O. T. C. at the University of South Carolina.

Juniors, Seniors To Picnic May 4

Next Friday evening has been set as the date for the postponed junior-senior picnic and barn dance. The time and meeting place are the same—5 p. m. at the Arch. The food is still barbecue and all that goes with it, including cokes.

The picnic site is different. This time the barn dance is really going to be in a barn—at Ernest Allan's farm.

"A juke box, 11 p. m. permission and dungaree privilege for the sailors are all part of the good time coming up," says Senior Class President Bill Conkling.

Pvt. Earl Oster, ex '43 Killed in Action April 3

Pvt. Earl Ellison Oster, ex '43, was killed in action in Germany April 3 while serving with an infantry unit. Pvt. Oster had been in service since August and overseas since February. He was a graduate of Polytechnic High School, and was employed by the First National Bank during the time he attended T. C. U.

He was an English and journalism major, completing his freshman year before he enlisted. He was a member of Sigma Tau.

English Office is 'Haven' for Coed Hunting Husband

You don't exactly have to work in the English office if you want to get married, but (note to coeds) it helps.

At least that is the theory put forth by Miss Mabel Major after Dolores Lafferty deserted the typewriter to become Mrs. Bryan Hanley.

Dolores isn't the only "helper" who took the fatal step this year. In December, Mary Louise Morrow married Midshipman Ed Corbellius, and left for Yale to be with her Navy husband while he was in Divinity School. Mary had worked in the English office about four months before her wedding. Dolores didn't take quite so much time to make up her mind. She has been a secretary only since March.

The two weddings cut the office staff in half. Still single—but probably not for long—are Madge O'Neill and Millicent Cobb. So, it's a 50 per cent chance that the English office is the sure place to catch a husband.

Students Work for World Peace

Last week, members of the Student Council and the "S" met to draw up a series of principles to be sent to the secretary of state and Senator Tom Connally, as the students' hopes for world peace. With these principles go the sincere hopes of college students for tomorrow's world.

What can a college student say or do that will help in bringing peace for all the peoples of the earth? The men who plan San Francisco conferences, Dumbarton Oaks and Bretton Woods proposals, may not be interested in what Texas college students believe could bring international freedom and lasting peace. And yet, they too, must realize that, in drawing up such principles for a free world, students intend to fight for tomorrow's peace as hard as they are fighting today's war.

What are the students' hopes for world peace? An international peace organization, economic co-operation, education, a higher standard of living, and freedom of action and belief in religion and culture. They are hopes that can be met in the post-war world, if Allied leaders, and leaders on college campuses throughout the nation, unite in the effort for lasting peace.

Proposed Honor Roll Changes

Inquiries among students, faculty members and the administration show that many persons in T. C. U. agree that there should be some change in the Honor Roll. The administration has said that it will be possible to make an alteration in the system. Now the problem arises as to what change should be made.

From the opinions expressed by different persons on the campus, three specific plans have evolved. The plan of selection, as it stands now, is to put everyone on the list who has a "B" average with no grade below a "C."

A few students and faculty members have suggested that the Honor Roll be changed to include only those students who make straight "A." This is the most drastic alteration suggested. It would, however, render the Honor Roll an exclusive and greatly-argued-to list.

A greater number have proposed that only those who make all "A's" or almost should be on the roll. This would eliminate those students who make "C's" and include them with "A's" to get on the list. Such a plan would cut the list down considerably, but would still make a much larger group than would the first proposal.

All three groups—faculty, students and administration—have, in part, approved the idea of selecting the top 10 per cent of the student body for the Honor Roll. This is the system now employed for the selection of Alpha Chi members.

It seems likely that one of these systems, with alterations perhaps, may be adopted for use at T. C. U. Let us hope so.

Would-be Starlin Management Complains New "Big Four"

The girls put on trousers (and called them slacks). Then they began wearing brother's or dad's shirts for blouses. But at long last the boys have found a way to get even — they're growing mustaches. Not all the whisker efforts can be classed as successful, but then there are those on whom slacks are not exactly an improvement. Recruiting slogan for the new venture is reported to be, "Remember Rascals Week!"

A sign recently posted about the third-floor incinerator chair Foster Hall reads: "Banging the incinerator will be done at our risk. It is assumed that serious consequences will result. Management." Evidently those who room nearby have been weary of having their beauty disturbed by angry leavers who trash baskets to empty.

English with a boogie beat is the newest description of Dr. Paul Dinkins' "Millon" class these spring mornings. Now that the windows are open (the few days it isn't raining), competition to low flying B-24s comes from would-be Starlins and Starlins in third-floor practice rooms. Dr. Dinkins and members of his class are somewhat concerned over the failure of a certain male vocalist who never quite makes the high notes, but who does at least furnish a certain comedy element necessary for relaxation.

For two home town buddies meet in the midst of this war and so unusual, but when T. C. U. was put together the news fly thick and fast. R. L. Hayes, Bob Coleman, Jim Blackburn and Bob Young, V-12 ex '44, met recently on duty in the Pacific. The Navy department refuses to reveal the definite location of this latest meeting of the "Big Four," but you can bet that there was a lot of Purple and White chatter.

Guardians of the campus have been busy removing Alice Louden's pictures from the bulletin boards before the events being advertised take place—in fact, almost before anyone has had an opportunity to see the posters. Rumor has it that a number of walls in Goode and Foster have become the final resting place for Alice's art, which is competing for top honors with the Perry and Varga girls. Of course, another name for it is "stealing."

It wouldn't do to reveal names of the two who had conversation recently, but the conversation itself is too good to pass along. "What do you mean when you say that a girl is dumb?" she asked. His reply: "That will be difficult to explain to you!"

Plans for the awarding of honors were discussed in a short meeting of the officers of W. S. A. yesterday.

Mrs. C. E. Orshood, Don Jensen Moore's secretary, is in Harrisburg, Ark., where her mother is visiting.

ELIZABETH DAVIS
Freshman Class President Elizabeth Davis will be on hand to welcome everyone to the Freshman dance tonight.

In addition to being freshman class president, Lizzie is a member of the Student Council, Dramatic Club and the Frogties, and was one of the leaders in organizing a group of T. C. U. girls for a Norway excursion.

Lizzie's home is in Dallas and she's another of those "Second Generation Frogs." Her mother attended T. C. U. She is a 5-foot-3 blonde with brown eyes. Her major is speech.

Her favorite pastimes are dancing and listening to music. Lizzie says she likes dogs and dislikes crowded people and exams.

Frog Flashes

You never know what's going to happen at a baseball game. Fans of the Frog-Aggie contest certainly missed one for the books. Texas led 7 to 0 going into the half of the fourth. One more out was needed to make it an official game—and the rain was coming to fall. So Coach Meyer sent the first three batters to bat at everything and get out there, but quick. Three men pitched, swinging on 10 pitched balls—and the last five or six (after the Aggie pitcher got on) were really balls—wide and handsome! Mullins and soldiered out one bad one, or there would have been nine pitches.

The first of the fifth, Lefty got the ball up to the plate and Aggie batters couldn't resist. It took four pitches to get the three outs. Six batters on two teams went out on 14 pitched balls, which must be some near a record in college games.

The game with the Agriculturalists that was rained out yesterday will probably never be played. The Frogs are booked to play in College Station May 1 but they also are scheduled for a double-header with the Rice boys the following day in Houston. "We just don't have the time to play double-headers successive days," Meyer comments, "so we agreed with the Aggies to forget that rained-out game."

Four conference games have already been rained out—A. & M., M. U. double-header in College Station, Rice-Texas in Houston and the T. C. U.-A. & M. game in Fort Worth. Travel conditions make it more than usually difficult to reschedule these games.

Jack Lindsey, shortstop with the Longhorn nine which plays a double-header here tomorrow, was voted the No. 1 high school player in the nation last year by Esquire magazine's all-American game at the Polo Grounds, New York City, Aug. 1. He has been offered professional contracts by the New York Giants, the Boston Red Sox, and several minor league teams.

Coaches are not superstitious. Ask any of them and you'll get a negative answer. No, they're not superstitious—only careful. No bats are racked up beside the benches. Bat boys are warned of time by Manager Bill Meyer. But is Coach Meyer superstitious about the matter? Certainly not! "Just a habit," he explains.

Pitcher Earl Conrad is a coach in his own right. The Frog hurler went to McLean Junior High each afternoon to conduct physical exercises, then hurries back to the campus for work-outs at 4 p. m. The hand at every Frog game are the four or five of his young pupils. Help Earl put on his jacket, to help him bat or glove, and generally play the role of hero worshipper.

"The Essentials of World Order" was the subject of a talk by President M. E. Sadler at the annual Fellowship Dinner at the University Christian Church Wednesday night.

Frogs Meet Steers Tomorrow Afternoon In 2:30 Twin Games

Revenge-Seeking Christians Hope to Upset Longhorns In Conference Monopoly

With high hopes of upsetting the Texas apple cart, Coach Dutch Meyer will send his Horned Frog diamonders against the Longhorns tomorrow afternoon in a crucial conference double-header on the Frogs' field south of the Stadium.

Hubert ("Lefty") Walters will be on the mound for the Frogs in the opener, which is set for 2:30 p. m. Earl Conrad will take over the slab in the nightcap. Coach Blair Cherry of Texas did not announce his starting hurlers, but Henry Culp probably will see action in one of the games.

The Frogs lost to the Teasippers, 10 to 3, in Austin last week. The Steers punched out 15 hits off Walters' pitching efforts.

While the definite underdogs for the game, the Frogs are capable of winning one of the tilts and sever the Longhorns' monopoly on college baseball. The Texans have yet to suffer a defeat this year in conference play.

If the Frogs can continue as they did against Texas A. & M., the Longhorns will be in for a full evening of trouble. The powerful T. C. U. batsmen will offer the Steers' pitching staff its most competition in several games.

Intramural Play To Be Continued

Originally slated to end this week, intramural softball will be extended another month by repeating the original 20 game schedule that was finished Wednesday.

3 Big Innings Earn 7-1 Conquest of Ags

Playing an aggressive brand of ball T. C. U. blasted Texas A. & M., 7 to 1, in a Southwest Conference game on the Frogs' diamond last Friday afternoon. Hubert ("Lefty") Walters did the pitching honors for the Frogs.

Winning their first conference tilt, the Meyermen jumped ahead at the start, putting 2 runs across in the first, 3 more in the second and the final 2 in the third.

The Aggies counted their lone tally in the eighth.

Harrelson Starts Things Off

Monroe Harrelson started the Frogs' half of the first by being hit with one of Charlie Smith's inside pitches. The speedy Frog center fielder stole second base and Ransom Jackson got a base on balls.

James Jones rapped a single into center field, scoring Harrelson, and Jackson pulled up on third. Harry Mullins sent a long fly out to left field, with Jackson tagging up and scoring.

After Charley Dreeschel had skied to left, Walters picked on an inside pitch and drove it down the left field line to start the Frogs' second inning rally. Harrelson followed with a single through the infield into left. Jackson flied to center but Jones came through again with a well-hit single to right field, scoring Walters.

Then Harry Mullins clouted one of Smith's favorite pitches over the left fielder for a three-base blow and Harrelson and Jones walked in home.

Pappy Gaines led off for the Frogs in the third frame, getting life on the third baseman's error. Bob Crow walked, but Dreeschel, attempting to sacrifice, popped out to the pitcher.

Gaines and Crow pulled a double steal as Walters struck out. Harrelson came through again with a slashing single to right, scoring both runners.

Frogs Swing and Swing

Then followed the Frogs' "bucket brigade" in the fourth. Attempting to speed up the game because rain was threatening a halt to festivities, Meyer ordered his men to swing at every pitch and not hit any!

Jones, Mullins and Joe Busch went down on 10 pitched balls. After Walters slow-balled his way

Tennis Team To Play A&M

Mayfield and Robbins, Robinson and Chu Pair For 1:30 Match Today

Seeking their first victory of the year, Dr. Fred West's tennis team meets Texas A. & M. on the clay courts this afternoon, starting at 1:30 p.m. There will be four singles and two doubles matches.

Bill Robinson has replaced Ray Robbins as the Frogs' No. 1 man with Vernon Mayfield moving into the No. 2 position. Robbins then follows, with Richard Chu remaining the fourth man.

Robinson will team with Chu for the No. 1 doubles and Robbins is pitted with Mayfield.

The Frogs played S. M. U. yesterday and lost to Baylor last Tuesday afternoon on the campus, 5-1. The Frogs failed to capture a singles match. Mayfield and Robbins teamed in the doubles for the lone Frog point.

Government Students Learn About Red Tape

One of the differences between actual government and a course in government is that one uses red tape and the other uses red pencil—and ask any government major which is which.

DR. JOHN LORD and DR. C. H. RICHARDS know all the answers to questions about when is a president not a president and how can the constitution be amended without an amendment.

And government majors who wish they did know are BILL TODD and BILL SMITH, who are now getting down to facts and figures (and Clare Booth Luce) about "American Political Parties."

BARBARA MEDFORD is learning what makes the national government tick, but, as for historical data, she'd rather talk about that ring on her third finger, left hand.

A girl with a side interest in government is ANNELLE ELIOTT, who is a chemistry major, which should prove that a chemist can mix anything and still get by.

JEAN FROST is a true Constitution pupil and comes up with the $64 explanation when Dr. Lord declares that the woman suffrage amendment does not give women the right to vote. At this point, Jean quotes the Constitution, "It shall not be denied to any person," implying that women are evidently persons.

BOB REEDY says that speeding along the cinder track is "duck soup" to him, but wading through a government exam is something different—and how!

A government major with big plans is DOT MOSELEY. Dot is a prelaw student who has dreams of becoming an attorney. She's studying debate as a supplement to her law studies, so she will know how to argue her clients free when she hangs her shingle 10 years hence.

PEGGY WHITEHEAD declares she likes her government work fine, but adds that her grades are "pitiful." Peggy can't understand the doctrine of judicial review. (As who can?)

When the "American State and Local Government" class is called to order, Dr. Richards thinks he's hearing double when he calls "Lee." Both BILL LEE and his wife, DOROTHY, are in the class and often answer for each other.

PHALA DAVIS is a government student majoring in sociology. She says that she enjoys most the "outside comments" made by Dr. Lord. Outside or inside, they usually lead to a verbal debate!

V-12er FRANK SLACK is taking government courses to aid his business major. When he becomes an accountant, he wants to be sure he keeps his business within the law.

Majoring in religion, OWETA BAKER has no ambition to become another Clare Booth Luce as the result of her government studies, for, as she says, "I don't think I'll ever be dealing in politics."

ALICE KISER, an English major, is now taking government and really understands it—well, part of it, anyway. She keeps wondering, though, whether the politicians were the smart little boys in government classes or whether they couldn't understand it either. (Or whether they ever took it, she might add.)

BETTY JUNE BRADFORD is majoring in Spanish and minor-ing in music. Asked why she is taking government, Betty says, "Because it's offered, I like it, and, besides, it's required."

JUNE WELCH has trouble convincing teachers that he's a "he" instead of a "she." Seems everyone wants to call him "Miss Welch."

A far cry from the rodeo performances she gave with Roy Rogers in Madison Square Garden last fall is the government class attended by SUG OWENS. Sug finds it hard to concentrate on the requirements for citizenship sometimes, but she's trying hard. (Professor, please note!)

This week's play opened Monday with a 4 to 3 victory over the team of Frank Crowe by the unit of Don Ver Duin. A second game on the same day saw an 8 to 4 drubbing of Bill Conkling's ten by the men of Bob Bosanko.

Conkling came back Tuesday to tie Joe Horton's team 3-all. Crowe's second game of the week was a 7 to 5 defeat by Simpson's undefeated men.

Crowe finally got in the victory column Wednesday with 11 tallies to the 6 of Bosanko's ten. Another 3-all tie of the week was drawn out by the teams of Ver Duin and Bob Smith.

3 Big

May 17 Is Date For Class Show

Eight "Dream Girls" have been chosen for the junior class varsity show—but identities will not be revealed until opening night.

"A Junior's Midsummer-Night's Dream" has the junior hopping from a conga line to Broadway; from a visit with a jitterbugging set of waiters, porters and upstairs maids to a juke joint, where complications with "the sweet young thing's" father set in.

Miss Hattie Stanley and Larry Farmer have cooked up a jitterbug routine, Miss Betty Atchison and George Miller will trip the light fantastic to a Spanish tango and Miss Jimmie Shieffs is "problem child" of a waltz-quence.

The "Dream" will be given one night instead of two, as previously announced. It will be staged at 8 p. m. Thursday, May 17.

Charles Robinson, ex '45, is giving preflight training.
