My dear Mr. Carter:

I am delighted to have the news about Amon Junior.

If you can secure any information as to exactly where he is confined I have channels by which it will be possible to send him some small packages of supplies which I know will be useful. If you can send me his location I will at the same time advise you the channel which I will use. If both of us do the same thing it may be the result of giving him some relief in what is certainly no pleasant situation.

Yours sincerely,

A. W. Herrington
