Fort Worth, Texas,
January 4, 1951

Honorable Sam Rayburn
Speaker of the House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sam: Congratulations on your historic record. To be elected six times to the high and responsible position, Speaker of the House of Representatives, in my estimation, is the tip-top honor to be conferred upon anyone. It is an evidence not only of your ability, fine sense of fairness and integrity, but attests the confidence and esteem of your loyalty and service rendered our State and Nation. It justifies the unusual tribute paid you by Joe Martin. Your thousands of friends throughout the Nation, I am sure, join all of the good folks in Texas in this recognition of an outstanding citizen who so completely measures up to the standards of true Americanism. We are "plum" proud of you. With sincere appreciation of the task you face at this time and with full confidence that you will give a good accounting I send to you my sincerest congratulations and best wishes.
