

April 14, 1941.

Mr. Alfred S. Low, Chief Engineer,
Austin Construction Company,
Neil P. Anderson Building,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Mr. Low:

Enclosed you will find a letter to Mr. Carter from W. E. Hill, 415 Wesley Street, Brownwood, Texas, asking for his assistance in securing a position with the Austin Construction Company, as well as a letter of recommendation from the Robert E. McKee Contracting Company who erected the Brownwood, Texas, camp.

Mr. Hill is a friend of Amon Carter Jr., and has been recommended as a high class, energetic, conscientious youngman who will make good if given an opportunity.

Mr. Carter has asked me to give this letter to Mr. Hill to bring to you as a letter of introduction.

Thanking you for your favorable consideration of Mr. Hill, I am

Yours very truly,

Secy. to Mr. Carter.
