Hello Amon:

Well another Thanksgiving has passed and as usual Mr. Carter was the great guy he was when you were home. But this time you stole the show. Believe me, Amon, the boys appreciated being remembered by you more than all the rest. They were just spellbound to think that there was a man in this world so burdened with trouble and yet think of his friends so far away. That is a real friend and we will try our utmost to be worthy of it. Each one of us hope and pray that this letter finds you well. Thank you again from the bottom of our hearts. Billye joins me with these your friends----- Monroe, Mrs. Nancy Crouse, Mr. Cummins, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Mitchell, V.T. Prindle, Mickey Maddox, Albert Wilson in sending our love and best wishes,

Sincerely,

Glyde
