

JAMES A. JACKSON
55 WALL STREET
NEW YORK

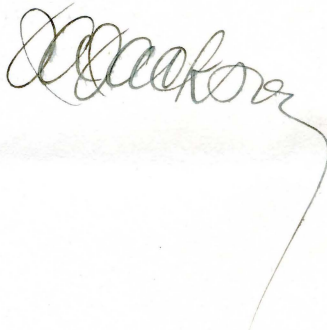

May 13, 1926

Dear Amon:

The air mail Wednesday morning May 12 edition of the "Record Telegram" reached the General Post Office at 10:30 and was at the Bank at 11:11 - all of which is indeed quite a revelation. I am advised the reason for the lateness of its arrival here was that the mail from Dallas and Fort Worth was first forwarded to the General Post Office up-town whereas the Chicago mail for the Wall Street district as per usual was delivered down-town at the Hudson Terminal Office, and we received the latter which came on the same plane before 8 A.M.

I am very appreciative of being on your list, and want to thank you for your kindness.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth,
Texas.

RECEIVED
MAY 17 1926