

Fort Worth, Texas.

July 4th, 1938.

Dear Mr. Holden,

Since writing you this morning it has occurred to me as I mentioned to you Mr. Carter might have a plan to entertain the news writers, photographers and radio men accompanying the Presidential Party to Fort Worth next Saturday extending over Monday. If he has and desires to furnish the facilities for the occasion, as a member of the publicity committee, I think and would favor the chamber furnishing the supplies and labor for the occasion, and, if necessary, would be willing to contribute personally to the cause and also help raise the necessary amount to cover the expense, if the Chamber is not able to do so.

To me this is a very meritorious proposition and is worthy of a reasonable expenditure by your organization.

I would suggest you confer with Mr. Carter and Mr. Hough of the Star-Telegram and WBAP and see what can be worked out.

If I can be of any service to you, please command me.

Very truly,

J. C. Griffith
