

THE VICE PRESIDENT'S CHAMBER
WASHINGTON

Uvalde, Texas.
Nov. 9, 1934

Hon. Amon Carter,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Amon:

From our good friend, Roy Miller, I have just learned that you and a number of other friends, purchased the portrait of me painted by Mr. Nicholas R. Brewer, and that it has been placed in the House of Representatives, Austin, Texas.

I intensely appreciate this evidence of friendship. If I had your vocabulary, and ability of speech, I might be able to convey my feeling to you but as it is, you will just have to take my appreciation for granted. Anyway, I feel greatly honored and hope that I will always merit the friendship shown me.

We still have had no rain, and the country looks pitiful; however it is a little cooler, and I am hoping to stay out in the woods most of the time between now and when I have to go back to Washington.

I hear from Silliman pretty regularly and from Sam every time he feels that he has something of importance to pass on.

Mrs. Garner joins me in love and best wishes.

Sincerely your friend,
