Frogs Will Meet Mustangs In Second Tilt

"DISRAELI" MAY BE REPRODUCED SOON

Two Lawyers Are Offering Play Financial Aid

The success with which the Dramatic Club of T. C. U. produced the play "Disraeli" has brought an offer from two Fort Worth lawyers, Charles Kassell and Sydney Samuels, to finance the reproduction of the play at an early date. "Disraeli" is a four-act play by Louis N. Parker, and dedicated to the famous George Arliss, and was presented by the club in the university auditorium last Friday night.

It is, however, according to Miss Gladys Silvia De Bates, improbable that the play will be reproduced. Miss De Bates is the acting head of the Public Speaking department of the university and the instructor of the play. It is explained that the club produces the plays merely for the furtherance of the best in college dramatics and not to make money and that it has never been the policy of the club to do second performances.

Harvey Redford whose masterful presentation as the Jewish Prime Minister of England has elicited many comments, is a ministerial student and a veteran of the Dramatic Club. Redford, beside being president of the club in bygone years, has taken part in many plays, some of which were "Frogstad," "The Doll's House," "The Enemy" and "The Rock."

Clyde Roberson as "Clarissa, Lady Pevensey" lent a breath of freshness, of charm, and adroit acting to the play. Miss Roberson is also a comparative veteran of the footlights.

Fred Erisman as "Charles Viscount Deorford," played his usual excellent role. The acting of Dick Bailey "Foljambe," the spy, of Margaret Cameron as "Mrs. Noel Travers" and of De Rue Armstrong as "The Duchess of Glastonbury" was exceptionally good.

First Triangle Debate Will Be Held On Feb. 15

The first of three "triangle" debates in which Texas Christian University will participate is scheduled between Simmons University, Baylor University and T. C. U. on Feb. 17.

The triangle plan of debate calls for each school using two teams. One team debates at home and the other goes visiting. Thus, there are three debates on each scheduled evening, one at the seat of each university participating.

The question to be debated in all of the triangles is: "Resolved, that the United States should cease to protect by force of arms, capital invested in foreign lands, except after formal declaration of war."

In the debates of Feb. 17, T. C. U. has the negative against Simmons and the affirmative against Baylor. A second triangular meet is scheduled for March 25 between Trinity, Southwestern and T. C. U. The third in the series will be held at a later date yet to be determined, between S. M. U., A and M. and T. C. U.

"Disraeli"

HARVEY REDFORD.

Harvey Redford, whose acting in the Dramatic Club production of "Disraeli" aroused much comment. Redford has taken part in several plays produced by the club, but his masterful portrayal of the Jewish Prime Minister of England may be easily classed as his best.

BAND UNIFORMS WILL BE READY FOR STOCK SHOW

The Texas Christian University Band is to have new uniforms. This action was taken by university, according to Butler S. Smiser, business manager of the university, because the old uniforms are most evidently not in keeping with the progress the band has made since they were bought five years ago.

The new uniforms will be ready, in a few weeks, and the band will use them at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, March, 10-17, when it will play two concerts daily.

In 1922 when the present uniforms were bought by the university they were adequate for its needs because there were only about 30 members and as an organization it then received little recognition outside the university. But now the band has grown, not only in quantity but in quality and the present year promises to be the best in its history. Under the tutelage of Prof. Claude Sammis, the organization has become, while not the largest, one of the best trained college bands in the state.

On last Oct. 21, the band went to Ranger as the official band of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce to the Ranger Oil Jubilee and carried off first prize in competition with some of the best bands in West Texas, including the famous Simmons Cowboy Band of Abilene.

This year it has been given the contract to furnish music for the Fat Stock Show, an honor formerly given to the A. & M. Band.

While the T. C. U. Band is not a self-supporting organization, it pays for its annual banquet and provides money to buy sweaters each year for every member of the band who has been given a letter by the university. This is done with money won in prizes and taken in at the "Grotesque Frogland Follies" an annual concert and entertainment given by the band.

The uniforms will be white with purple trimmings and have a stiff naval office cap. Washer Brothers are handling the order for the uniforms.

New Methods Will Be Installed In Spring Football

An innovation in Spring football training camps as far as Southwest Conference teams are concerned will be conducted for the T. C. U. Horned Frogs, beginning the latter part of April, according to Coach Madison Bell.

Every candidate who expects to report to the Frog varsity next Fall is expected to take part in the Spring practice. The schedule of workouts planned are the most elaborate ever attempted here or elsewhere in the Southwest circuit.

The tentative training plans call for four regular workouts each week, starting Monday and continuing through Thursday, and a practice game each Friday. The squad will be divided into two groups, the team winning the weekly game to be treated to a theater party.

Each squad will have a student manager whose duty it will be to keep a close check on the men of his squad as to attendance at practice, condition and individual performance in the games.

As Coach Bell will be working with his track squad most of the time during the period planned for the football work, Line Coach Ed Kubale will be in charge of the grid training. He will be assisted by Harold Carson and Raymond Wolf, former Frog stars. The new plan of practice is certain to prove much more attractive and interesting to the men and is sure to create more interest among fans than the old routine used in the past.

Frogs Down Shoe Co. By Decisive Score

Friday night in the big gym the Horned Frogs took the measure of the powerful Walk-Over Shoe Co. team of the major city league. The reserves started the game and had considerable trouble in holding their own with the shoemen and Matty Bell put in four new men, Matthew, Steadman, Parrish and Eury. These new men lost no time in piling up a formidable score against the enemy.

Johnson, diminutive Walk-Over forward was high point man of the evening with a total of 16. Steadman and Parrish, Purple forwards, had a total of 13 and 12 respectively. The frog was only a practice game and it helped to show just where the Frogs "stand." The final score was 46-28 in favor of the Frogs.

Fall Down Library Steps Replaces Cupid's Bow

We have often heard of falling in love figuratively, but two popular young people at Texas Christian University have experienced this situation, and all because of high heel shoes and wet steps. The co-ed had started down the steps of the Burnet Library, looking far into the distance, when her foot slipped and she fell down six steps. She thought there was no one around, but to her embarrassment no sooner had she hit the bottom, than a handsome young senior, whom she had heard a great deal about, but did not know, picked her up.

After incoherent mutterings, she was assured that he did not mind picking her up at all. They walked across the campus, and that week end he had three dates with young seniorette. Now she wears a solitaire with love birds, wedding bells and orange blossoms around it. The names of these lovers will be revealed in June, but due to their timidity, they do not want their identity revealed now.

B.B.A. BANQUET AT WESTBROOK REAL SUCCESS

Attended by 135 students, the annual banquet of the business administration department of Texas Christian University was held Wednesday night in the Westbrook grill room. Raymond Wolfe, senior in the department, was the toastmaster. The principal speaker of the evening was W. L. Feeley, "Mayor of Eskota."

Miss Mildred Erie Austin, 3018 Avenue C, was crowned "Miss B.B.A." by Raymond Wolfe and Miss Betty Glenn, who was "Miss B.B.A." in 1927. "Miss B.B.A." is an honor title conferred each year by vote of the students in this department.

Talks were made by Prof. Avery L. Carlson, Butler Smiser, Matty Bell, Ed Kubale and L. C. "Pete" Wright. The seniors who will receive their degrees in June were introduced by Prof. J. W. Ballard, head of the school of business administration.

Music was furnished throughout the evening by an orchestra from Terrell Military College at Terrell. Vocal numbers were given by Misses Anna-Bell Hall and Elizabeth Nelson, accompanied by Miss Ruth Williamson.

The B.B.A. graduates introduced by Prof. Ballard, were: W. P. Atkinson, Carthage; R. L. Caldwell, Fort Worth; Harold Danielson, Chicago, Ill.; E. B. Lovvorn, Stamford; Kenneth McCorkle, Strawn; Preston McNeely, Fort Worth; Burton Perry, Henderson; Lester Pratho, Wichita Falls; Lowell Parrish, Terrell; R. L. Pettit, Killeen; Roy Reynolds, Killeen; Jessie Seay, Toyah; George E. Stove, Abilene; Hunter Vaughn, Wolfe City; Martha Van Zandt, Fort Worth; Raymond Wolfe, Houston; Albert Acker, Fort Worth; Jack Bailey, Holland; Hazel Nelson, Fort Worth.

Among the former graduates who attended were Carlos Holcombe, John Barber, and Claude Jacobs.

"T" Association Homecoming Will Be Held in May

The "T" Association, a society of men who have made letters in athletics at Texas Christian University is planning a "homecoming-get-together" banquet to be held in May.

This banquet, according to Raymond Matthews, this year's "T" president, will be made an unusual affair, the purpose being to keep the athletes in touch with one another and to promote good fellowship. All alumni letter men will be invited, and from indications the school on the hill will be the Mecca for many Purple illuminates of past years.

"T" Association now has 35 members. It was inaugurated some years ago, but for some reason was dropped. It was again brought to life in 1926. To be eligible for membership, one must have lettered in football, baseball, basket ball, track or tennis.

The officers this year are: Raymond Matthews, president; Harold Carson, vice president; Odie Thompson, sergeant-at-arms; and Mack Clark, secretary. Meetings are held weekly and many social activities are planned for the year.

A committee composed of Raymond Wolfe, Raymond Matthews and Albert Acker has been appointed to interest the athletic council in the feasibility of a plan by which the members of the association will be allowed free admittance to future athletic contests played by T. C. U. This plan has already been adopted by several of the conference schools and it is probable that T. C. U. will accept the plan in respect to the services given by these men.

Toastmaster

RAYMOND WOLFE.

Raymond Wolf, senior in the B. B. A. department who presided over the Business faction's big banquet at the Westbrook Hotel last week. Raymond is an old athletic hero of the university and is now the property of the Cincinnati Reds.

SEEK REVENGE FOR ONE POINT LOSS IN FIRST

Southern Methodist University, ancient enemy of the Texas Christian University will journey to the habitat of the Fighting Frogs Saturday night to encounter them in a basketball game at the Big Gym at 8 p. m.

The Frogs fell before the fast moving Mustang quintet in the early part of the season, the score was 23-22. The Bell crew has been working diligently in order to be ready for the attack of the visitors. They have not encountered a conference club since the night when the Purple and White vanquished the Farmers of A. & M.

The athletic contests between T. C. U. and S. M. U. are always hot and furious, whether it be marbles, golf or basketball. The Mustangs seem to have a jinx on the Frogs so far as one point victories are concerned, and this will be an incentive for the Bellmen to put out all they have.

Coach Bell is grooming Roy Eury to fill the shoes of Clyde McDonnell, who is having a little trouble with some of his work and will be on the sidelines until Feb. 6, two days following the S. M. U. game. Saturday is Clyde's birthday and he said what he wanted for a birthday present was a victory over Mustangs.

The work of the Frogs has improved considerably since the victory over A. & M. as was shown in their overwhelming victory over the strong Walk-Over Shoe Co. team of the Major City League. Two regulars, McDonnell and Acker, did not play in the game. Acker is suffering slightly from an ankle injury received in football, he will be ready to go when the referee blows the whistle to start the game Saturday night. Acker is a proven player and his presence in the game will cause the Horned Frog stock to rise considerably, however, Wallin and Matthews make a formidable pair of guards.

Mrs. Murphy Announces New Sports For Girls

"The demand for leaders to develop the needs of the adolescent girl with no overstrain has led to the introduction of many moderate sports in the schools," says Mrs. Helen Murphy, woman's athletic director at Texas Christian University.

These moderate sports, which are really modifications of the more highly organized games, are being instituted at T. C. U. this year.

Such games as base-crik, bowl-club ball, batball, captain ball, hit-pin baseball, Newcomb, paddle tennis, quoits and volley baseball are among the new sports at the university and are so organized that there is no violent exercise nor overstrain for those girls who are unable to take part in more strenuous exercises. Tenikoit, a game played on ocean liners, is also included among these new, less strenuous games.

Feb. 28 Set As Last Day For Grad Photos

Saturday, Jan. 28, will be the last day that graduate students of Texas Christian University may have their pictures made at Staut's (Taylor's) Studio, 509 1/2 Main street. Seniors may have their's made when the new students come in at mid-term, until Feb. 11. Most of the students have had their pictures made.

HOBBOING IN HARVARD.

From Harvard comes a notice that hoboing is growing steadily in popularity. Hoboing, for those not familiar with the term, is the name applied to the practice of taking the school paper each morning, noting the lecture to be given that day, and attending such classes as interest one.

In this way students have an opportunity to hear discussions along the lines in which they are most interested. Junior and senior courses are arranged so that only nine hours work is regular routine study, the remainder of the time is devoted to hoboing such lectures as interest them.

This practice is growing in the East, and in all probability will spread to the South. We were wondering why such a practice could not be recognized in T. C. U.? Of course, large sections and limited space will greatly circumscribe the feasibility of the plan here. Permission of the teacher would be necessary, which permission could be indicated by posting lecture schedules on the bulletin board and indicating the number that could attend. When the room was filled, the doors could be closed and the lecture begun.

This system would be a great blow at the foreign criticism of American colleges. Lectures would not be attended, merely for credit, but through interest.

LET THE OLD BOYS IN.

An old warrior returning from battle is not slighted; he is praised. Every scar he wears is a source of pride not only to himself, but to the side he represented. Athletes are the warriors, the physical warriors, of a university. When they are graduated, discharged from the army, nothing pleases them so much as to return to the old battleground and watch their posterity battle for the old school as they themselves have struggled.

In a few days a committee will wait on the Athletic Council with a proclamation to admit all old letter men to future athletic contests of T. C. U. without charge. In respect for the spirit with which they fought, in reference to the debt owed them by T. C. U., we are sure that there can be but one answer—SURE.

JUNIORS RESET DESTRUCTION OF NUMERAL.

Editor's Note:—This article, written and advanced by the Junior class, is printed at their request. As the subject discussed is a debatable one, The Skiff will print any replies turned in to The Skiff office.

It is with regret that the Junior class finds it necessary to say these words, yet we feel that something must be said. The Junior class has always stood for sportsmanlike conduct, friendly rivalry and closer contact with the fellow classes of T. C. U. It has been the aim of this class to do something constructive for its Alma Mater. It has endeavored to further its own interests, but the primary motive has been "T. C. U. first, last and always." One of the many activities of the class, and one which has attracted special attention and comment to T. C. U., was the making of the large "29" which overlooks Forest Park and the south. Twice this year this individual mark has been changed; once to a "28" and just recently to a "31." This figure means as much to the Junior class as the Purple and White means to the school. The only class which should have any ethical rights in destroying it is the class of "30." This class managed to give the Junior class of "29" much competition in its sophomore year and although the members of that class did destroy the numeral several times, they have not molested it since becoming sophomores. Our hats are off to you sophomores. As for the class of "31" we trust that "a word to the wise is sufficient."

MUCH About ADO Nothing

Fred: Mr. Elliott, how long can a donkey stand on one leg? Mr. Elliott: Why ask me Fred? You ought to know.

Saunders was sporting a new shirt the other day when a friend asked: "Boy how many yards does it take for a shirt like that?" Saunders replied: "Say, man, Ah got three like this outa one yard last night."

Did you ever read the story about the "Empty Cup." No who is it by? The blind beggar.

"Theo, Bennett, you shouldn't come to school with your hair in such a disgraceful tangle." "No comb, teacher." "Can't you use your father's comb?" "No hair, teacher."

Judge Elliott: My daughter, sir, sprang from a line of peers. Bill Atkinson: Well, I dove off a dock once myself.

Artist: This is one of my finest Girls' Glee Club.

pictures, but you shall have it at half the catalogue price. Hazel Kinney: All right, what did the catalogue cost.

"How do you find marriage?" "During courtship I talked and she listened. After marriage she talked and I listened. Now we both talk and the neighbors listen."

Josephine (while playing bridge the other night): Bush why don't you change your suit? My other one is at the cleaners Honey.

THE GIRL FOR ME Any girl can be gay in a classy coupe. In a taxi they all can be jolly. But the girl worth while is the one that can smile. When you're taking her home on the trolley.

Girls' Glee Club Works On Twilight Musical

The Girls' Glee Club of Texas Christian University is now practicing on the third of the series of twilight musicals that it is presenting this year. This program will be given sometime in February, although the date has not been set. There was one twilight musicale presented before Christmas and the second was a Christmas cantata. Prof. Paul T. Klingstedt is the direction of the

Faculty Holding Place In Class Basketball Race

The intermural basketball games started off with a bang last week. Several close games were staged in the big gymnasium. Most of the teams appear to be evenly matched; none of the games have been won by a top-heavy score. Several have been captured by a one or two point margin, one even went into an extra five minute period.

All the games for this week have been postponed until after the final examinations, the next games will be played Feb. 6 and 8, the schedule is as follows: Monday, Feb. 6, 6:30, Fr. A. vs. Sr. A.; 7:30, So. C. vs. Jr. B.; 8:30, Jr. A. vs. Sr. B. Wednesday, Feb. 8, 6:30, Fr. B. vs. So. A.; 7:30, Jr. B. vs. Sen. B.; 8:30, So. B. vs. Fr. A.

I had not hoped to find you here, me— The hasting hours and the gentle breeze Seemed bent on keeping you; I feared To whisper; and I bless the winds, The frozen winter starlight—and the night, Oh I must worship echoes and the fire That brought you forth—a shrinking shadow— First Mists! Dancing demons of the fanning flame, One moment there your eager arms upheld And from your eyes, a tearful tide, Love and Soulful sympathy descended 'Till the night was lost, and I, stood Radiant on the frosted hill, stood there Among the stars and drew the light lit blue Of winter heavens round me—here— die For lo, the finished embers sank— And left me with the freezing air.

Orchestra Broadcasts Program Over WCAP Acting Head of Speaking Dept. Goes to San Angelo

Walter Hurst of Fort Worth directed an orchestra composed of students of the Fine Arts department of Texas Christian University which broadcasted over WCAP Sunday, Jan. 29 from 2:30 to 3:30.

This program was put on under the auspices of the Fort Worth Christian Endeavor week which is from Jan. 29 to Feb. 5. The program was directed by Minta Lois Pruden, a student of Texas Christian University.

The personnel of the orchestra is as follows: Violins, Dorothy Chaney of Ballinger and assistant in violin at T. C. U.; Thelma Brannon of Cumby, Bernice Alexander of Jayton and Mary Alice Thompson and Margot Shaw, both of Fort Worth, cello; Billy Joe Davis of McAllen, piano; Mildred Benning of Fort Worth, trumpet; C. A. Denny of Fort Worth, clarinet; Morris Novit of Dublin, Trombone; Perry Sandifer of Fort Worth, bass

Paige Harrell, Dublin, and Claude Mannine, Fort Worth, drums.

At the end of the Fall semester Mrs. Gladys de Silva Bates, who for the past four months has been acting head of the Public Speaking Department here, will leave to take charge of the same department in the San Angelo High School. During her four months stay here, Mrs. Bates produced the musical comedy, "The Rustle of Reveals," and supervised the production of "The Rock." Her recent production, "Disraeli" was acclaimed to be one of the greatest stage presentations ever to be given on a Fort Worth stage. Mrs. Bates at present is vice president of the Texas Speech Arts Association.

Prof. L. D. Falls, who has just recently returned from Boston, will again take charge of the department.

Well, exam time is here and you take this time to say good-bye to some of the freshmen on the campus. If the shoe fits you wear it.

The victory over A. & M. by the Fighting Frogs should put new zest into the Purple basketeers. However, the loss of three games by one score denotes the typical Frog fighting spirit.

Reports are being circulated that "Rags" Matthews has accepted a job as coach at Daniel Baker, should Daniel Baker secure "Rags" services they should come to the fore in the Texas association due to his ability and renown.

"Dutch" Meyer's cohorts will soon be whamming the horsehide on the baseball diamond. The Frogs have always boasted of an excellent baseball club and fans over the Southwest are anxious for them to regain their place of prominence.

Kellus Turner and "Bear" Wolf will soon be shaking the Texas dust off their feet and heading for the big league camps. The best wishes of Frogland are with them.

Tennis is having a great revival in T. C. U. of late. From all reports the Frogs should give the usual leaders a merry chase for the conference title this coming year.

With exams over the Fighting Frogs and their supporters should enter the basketball race with great vigor, the Frogs have seven games left and must win a large majority to prevent being shoved into the cellar.

Kansas Geologist Will Lecture For Local Fraternity

Dr. Raymond C. Moore, state geologist of Kansas and head of the department of geology at the University of Kansas, will speak at Texas Christian University at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Dr. Moore's subject will be, "The Pennsylvanian Formations of Texas." He comes to T. C. U. under the auspices of the Pick and Hammer Club. The lecture will be given in the geology laboratory.

Dr. Moore is editor of the publications of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists, and the author of many articles and books relating to geology.

Special invitation to Fort Worth geologists to attend Dr. Moore's lecture is extended by the Pick and Hammer Club.

Are you a track star? Yes. Shake. I'm a hobo, too.

T.C.U. Is Home

Disraeli Goes Over

Manning Talks

Mrs. Registrar

M. M. Sprints

After all there is no place like old T. C. U.

We may hunt everywhere and say everything, but the old school just comes to be home. And there ain't no place else can take its place. Ain't I right, Mr. Graham?

Well, several of us fellows saw Disraeli put on by the Dramatic Club the other night, and we certainly did get our money's worth. Stangl was good, Redford was supreme, and Erisman performed to his usual standard. Mrs. Bates is due more praise than words can tell. The play was a success.

Said worried exams are upon us. We are wondering why we hadn't studied a long time. Well maybe next time.

Charles Proctor wants to know if all girls close their eyes when they are being kissed. Now we can't answer that.

However, Claude Manning says he knows they don't when someone else is receiving the offering.

Just strolling down the campus for a little fun I guess, Lloyd Burns, and Lois Houtchens.

Mrs. Tucker was measuring the heights of certain tall ones in her 8 o'clock Psy. class last week, and Mr. Roland Perry took first prize, with Frank Edlebrock only an inch behind. Wonder if Perry won by a hair.

First cousin to a second-story man is Miss Helen Boren. Only difference is she tickles the keys while he makes 'em to open things.

Mr. James Alderman, freshman, will be in charge of the floor committee for the freshman annual skating party coming soon. Please stay up Jimmie.

And now little Miss Mildred Meggs sprints into view with a flock of girls who are training for track. Mill is manager, and she says they sure got to run if they catch the track train.

Will be at work soon in the journalism department, Miss Pauline Barnes, former society editor of The Skiff.

What! A new flame, Aileen Allen. Oh, just discovered something new in the boy friend. Well, that's different.

Miss Ilene Timmerman, 2618 Rogers street, entertained a number of her friends with a party Friday afternoon at 2:30. A color scheme of yellow was used in tallies and nut cups.

Miss Charlotte Housel won high score in games played and Miss Dorrit Moses won low. A salad course was served to the following: Dorrit Moses, Charlotte Housel, Corrine Cunningham, Bernice Badgett, Mary Linn Sharp, Frances Brady, Loyce Price, Katherine Morris, Robbie Lee Polk, Helen Boren, Katherine Yoder, Mary Sue McDonald and Juanita Wills.

Dr. Robert Green and his sister-in-law, Miss Lucy Smith, entertained with an informal dinner party at their home, 2940 Princeton street, Thursday night.

Place cards marked places for the following guests: President E. M. Waits, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Hughes, Dr. and Mrs. Josiah Combs, Dean and Mrs. Colby D. Hall, Mrs. Sadie Beckham and Miss Dorrit Moses.

Miss Ilene Timmerman gave a very interesting paper on superstitions at the last meeting of Pi Gamma Mu, honorary national social science fraternity of T. C. U., on last Thursday afternoon, a week ago, in the club room at Brite Collge. Miss Timmerman named some of the present day superstitions and explained their origins.

Three new members were also initiated into Pi Gamma Mu: Billy Ashburn, Phyllis Pope and Avis Robertson.

We found this on a Bible exam: "Paul was an undersized, little man."

Did perceive a most unusual amount of attention on the part of ye fellow classmates today. Would have been most astonished at such studiousness had I not understood its cause. But the reason thereof is not hard to find, for, alas, most terrifying finals are close at hand.

Did hear of the wild escapades of our two collegiate Bills, who recently did go a-dating with certain fair high school damsels. It seemeth that Billy maketh love as proficiently as he leadeth yells.

Saw a certain little blond haired girl sporting a West sweater. In faith, we wonder who this could be.

Contrary to custom did attend chapel this morning. Was much impressed with the famous Bert Lytell, as, I have no doubt, was many another of our sweet young co-eds.

Did recently make the acquaintance of one Wills Cox, much famed in Jarvis Hall. I had known many secret lovers of his, but, in truth, had not discovered the object of so much admiration until the past few days.

Baseball Field to Have New Bleachers For Coming Season

Both the players and fans will profit this Spring from improvements made on the T. C. U. baseball field. The diamond has been filled in, rolled and resodded where needed under the careful direction of Athletic Director L. C. Wright, preserving one of the finest playing fields in the Southwest Conference for the college nines to gambol on.

The improvement for fans is in the rebuilding of the bleachers, removing numerous splinter and loose board hazards. The T. C. U. field has long had the reputation of being one of the best college diamonds in the Southwest. This reputation is due principally to the painstaking efforts of "Pete" Wright. The diamond is kept in fair shape all the year round.

Signs of baseball already have appeared on the campus. Groups of athletes and others dig out gloves and mitts on nearly every sunshiny day and toss around the old horsehide. Coach Lee Meyer will call out his candidates for the Frog varsity nine early in March.

Prospects for a winning entry in the Southwest Conference race are not as bright as they might be but Coach Meyer hopes to build up a fighting combination that will make a fair showing even with the few experienced men that he has to use.

Library Receives Ten Volumes 'Poets' Lives'

Books along the general line that have been recently received at the Mary Coats Burnett library at Texas Christian University are as follows: Lives of the Poets, vol. 1 and 2 of the Everyman series by Dr. Johnson; State Government by Dodd; Manual of Bible History by Blaikie; Sociology and Political Theory by Barnes; Introduction to Sociology by Begartus; American and Political Ideals by Merriman; Outline of History by H. G. Wells, four volumes; Works of George Eliott, 12 volumes and four volumes of American Short Stories by various authors.

Men's Glee Club Plans Tour In Near Future

The Men's Glee Club of Texas Christian University is planning to make a tour of several cities and give programs in the near future. The final date of this trip has not been decided, but the officials are corresponding with people in the various places and favorable replies are being received.
