My dear Mr. Carter:

We are most happy here at Culver to receive the news that Amon Jr. is safe and has been definitely reported as a prisoner of war in Germany.

Thank you very much for the clippings which arrived today and which I have turned over to the editor of the ALUMNUS. I am writing Amon Jr. a letter today, having received his present address from Mr. Myers, a Counselor in the Cavalry.

With kind regards, I am

Very sincerely,
