Mr. Amon G. Carter
Fort Worth STAR-TELEGRAM
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Mr. Carter:

9 This afternoon Mrs. Smith was wondering how Amon, Jr., was getting along and where he is now. She asked me to write you about him, as she and Mr. Smith had been thinking of him and of you but had not heard from you for a while.

As you know, Mr. Smith suffered a cerebral hemorrhage last November and was laid up with the resulting stroke which affected his right side for quite a few months. He recovered considerably and came back to the office for a short while in the summer, for a few hours each day. However, he had a set-back in the middle of July and has since been out of circulation again. I am glad to say he is very much better. He drove to the office this afternoon, but did not get out of the car. We expect him to start coming to the office again for a short time each day some time next month.

I know they would be glad to hear from you at any time. You can write Mr. Smith here at the office, or at the Seelbach Hotel, and we will see that he gets it promptly.

With kindest regards,

Very truly yours,

W. Kyle
