

Mr. Rogers Arrives in Texas To Help the Democrats

To the Editor of The New York Times:

FORT WORTH, Texas, Jan. 12.—
Seemed good to get away from in front of a movie camera and get back on an airplane again. Left Beverly this morning and landed here in Fort Worth tonight, on regular passenger run.

Was met here by Amon Carter. You can try to sneak into this city on a bicycle, but Amon Carter will meet you at the city limits and welcome you. No other city in America has anything approaching such a public citizen as Carter. He met me by special plane 200 miles out to prevent me going into Dallas first. He poisoned one friend just to keep him out of Dallas.

I am down here to help Congressman Garner divide up Texas into twelve Democratic Senators.

Yours,

WILL ROGERS.
