Says Governor Attempting to Divert Public Opinion from State Highway Department Mess

By United Press.

FORT WORTH, Dec. 1.—Amon G. Carter, publisher of the Fort Worth Star Telegram, will not comply with Governor Ferguson's request that he resign from the Board of Directors of the Texas Tech College at Lubbock.

In a lengthy statement issued today in answer to the Ferguson letter to him yesterday, he declared that his resignation would be offered only when demanded by the people or by the request of the other members of the Board of Directors of which he is the chairman.

The publisher terms the charges made against him for violating the prohibition laws an effort to divert public attention from the State Highway Department expenditures and denied all charges made in the letter.
