

the work though, cheerfully and make the best of the surrounding.
I shall leave here toward the close of next week unless a very great interest shall induce me to remain over another Lord's day.

If I leave the last of the week as I expect, I shall stop over the 4th L.D. at Waco Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, will bring me home. If I remain here over the 4th L.D., I expect I shall go by Dallas and Ft. Worth, In that case Wednesday night will find me at home. In that case I will have to ask to be sent for again at Ft. Worth.
Tell Ran that a Bro. Scott from Hackberry will visit the Springs soon to look at the country. He wishes to examine Ran's mill site.
I had hoped to spend one week at home, but some one must go to Jackson. I would rather that father and Sam could go. One of them must go with me if I go.

Some one will have to stay with Bro. McWhinney while holding the meeting there.

How far well, my darling wife and dear children.

I throw myself into the work to-night praying for success. As soon as I see what is likely to be done, I shall write again.

I hope to get another from you while here.

Love to all.

Most affectionately,
A. Clark.
