Quotations from Japan

“Takusan” – plenty when speaking of work – very little of food and other luxuries.

“Sukoshi Meshi” – The cause of all illness and other things to get on out of work.

“Sukoshi Matte” – meaning “wait a minute” but used by nips for anything up to a year.

“Mess cooks to the galley,” the most welcome call in Japan
Sanyo Awari – Also welcome means “Work finished”

Dear Grandma and Grandpa.

I am in good health and hope you and all the folks back home are the same. I am eagerly looking forward to receiving more letters and some packages from everyone I know. The Red Cross can tell you what to send. I would like to get wool socks, underwear work clothes, tobacco and food such as peanut butter, canned meat and candy, powdered milk, malted milk and other rich foods.

Give my love and regards to Aunt Lucia and family and their family, Uncle George, Charley Walker and everyone I know.

I am thinking of you constantly and looking forward to my return when I can help you more.

Write soon and give me all the news of my folks and friends.

All my love

Your grandson
